EDITORIAL

"WHEN IT MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD."

WEDNESDAY, : : : : : : : : JULY. 24, 1867

We do not much like to differ from our amiable contemporary of Madison street, who wields so graceful and facile, and when he chooses, trenchant a pen. He is eminently a political philosopher, and generally lays down correct premises, from which he draws just conclusions. We seldom read an article of his that we do not feel constrained to agree with some part of it, if not with its whole tone and character. Such an article appeared in the columns of the Appeal yesterday, entitled, "Yoked, Not Mated," in which the natural incongruity of a Union between the Northern and Southern States is distinctly and clearly described. It sets out with this remarkable declaration: "When the Northern and Southern Colonies had won their independence, they should have established separate governments." This postulate is argued with great ability, but we hardly think demonstrated conclusively. The stand-point from which the argument progresses, is that the Union was "unnatural" because comprising "States with conflicting interests." It was thought by the patriots who had thrown off the yoke of Great Britain, that the interests of the several Colonies were not so conflicting that they could not be reconciled by a clearly defined written constitution, and accordingly the articles of Confederation were drawn up, to obey which perpetually the separate colonies were pledged. There were occasions in this league or compact which it was found necessary to remedy, to obtain more respect for the General Government, which, in regard to revenue alone, found itself wofully deficient and subject to the caprices and objections of the States, that were invested in their individual capacity with sovereign power. The Constitution of the United States was adopted, and some of the States most reluctantly induced to become members of the partnership. The debates show how cautiously every step was taken, and with what jealousy each concession was regarded. The united interest which had borne them through the successful war of the Revolution, and the blending influence of what was considered a well defined and unmistakable written rule, the sagacious fathers of the Constitution thought sufficient to perpetuate it, with such amendments as further experience might suggest, which were provided for in the instrument itself. Among the compromises which reconciled the "conflicting interests" was the permission to the State of Massachusetts, whose citizens were largely engaged in that traffic, to continue the African slave trade for twenty years, although expressly forbidden by the Constitution. At the same time, Massachusetts was the only State that had abolished slavery! Soon after the adoption of the Constitution parties sprang up, and its provisions were discussed. Very bitter animosities prevailed between those who contended for a strict construction, and those who, reasoning by analogies and from inferences, sought to enlarge the powers of the Federal Government. Through all the intermediate period, although for a time those differences of opinion seemed to have been settled, and parties in support of favorites for office appeared to raise new issues, the fires of the old antagonism were still smouldering and not extinguished, and were afterward blown into flame, and culminated in war. Unfortunately selfishness and the greed of office prevailed over patriotism, and the Constitution ceased to be regarded with veneration, because it presented a barrier to individual aspirations, and the accomplishment of certain purposes which it expressly forbade. The love of the Union had been made part of the religion inculcated in the minds of youths, and the progress and prosperity of the nation, obliterated much of State pride, while an insidious poison was instilled in every vein and artery of the people until they were in fact a moving, living putrid mass. The most absurd theories were broached, and "a higher law than the Constitution" openly proclaimed. Step by step the nation was dragged along almost to the precipice of war, until the patriots of 1850, embracing the largest minds in council, adopted the compromises of that year. It was thought the perplexing questions that had filled the wisest of the people with alarm, had been finally determined, but again were they revived, and the scotched snake warmed into life by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, which, untouched, was a dead letter—a Pandora's box, harmless when closed, but open, fraught with all the evils that could befall us. We are reaping the bitter fruits now of the incautious hand that raised the lid. The plainest propositions of the Constitution are ignored; a co-ordinate department of government has assumed all power, and States divested of every right, even in the administration of their own affairs. The aggressiveness of the North has borne down all opposition, with the aid of fanaticism and appeals to ignorance. With a despotism that is not only arbitrary but fiendish, it is demanded that long cherished and immutable principles shall be denied by those who entertain them, and the once free republic is converted into a consolidated empire, with an oligarchy at its head more truculent and ferocious than the Czar, whose plenary powers are hereditary. Such is a brief outline of the progress we have made; but neither our sketch nor the elaborate reasoning of the Appeal, proves that when independence was achieved from Great Britain, should the colonies have established separate governments. We only establish the fact that men, thinking themselves wise, are guilty of the greatest follies; that governments deemed the best are unstable; that selfishness is a predominating instinct; that patriotism is a vapor, and man is not, PER SE wE all so long and so fondly believed, capable of self-government.

MEXICO.

Escobedo's Motto is "Death to All Strangers."

Defiance and Hatred Toward "Yankees."

Whose Notables will Soon Beg for Their Own Heads.

Foreign Representatives Ordered to be Captured.

Twelve Generals and Four Colonels Executed by the Liberals.

NEW ORLEANS, July 22.

The Galveston papers contain a week's later Mexican news.

The Brownsville Ranchero doubts the report of an army of observation numbering fifteen thousand men under General Carlline being placed on the Rio Grande.

The Ranchero publishes a letter, stated to be written by Escobedo to General Gomez, directing the latter by every means in their power to make the country entirely Mexican.

Escobedo says: As all property in the hands of foreigners in Mexico has been acquired by Mexican misfortunes, the Mexican people should now take possession of it, and have power to hunt them from the country. He says: My motto is "Death to all strangers." He adds that: There is no danger of Yankees interfering with us as long as the Southern States are kept out of the Union, besides the black men would side with us, and would at all time pronounce against the whites. Before we get through with foreigners, the Yankees will think we are savages, and the time will come when their own notables will be begging for their heads instead of begging for the heads of Austrians.

Up to the 12th instant Generals Marquez and O'Haraton had not been found. Their adherents, it is supposed, had secreted them in the house of the British Minister. A strict search was being made for them, and as soon as discovered they will be shot.

General Diaz has ordered the capture of all foreign representatives who do not recognize the Liberal Government.

Twelve more generals who served under Maximilian have been shot at Queretaro; among others, Otero and Castillo.

Four Imperial Colonels were also shot.

Seven hundred Austrian prisoners have been sent to Puebla.

President Juarez has issued an order for the convocation of the Liberal Congress to elect a President.

Ortega is in prison at Monterey.

Santa Ana is still alive at Campeachy, but the captors are awaiting instructions from the Liberal government. The feeling there is undoubtedly that he will be shot. Advices from Matamoras are to the same effect.

The Prussian consul at Vera Cruz is conducting negotiations to obtain the release of the Austrian prisoners.

Captain Freeman, of the Revenue Cutter Wilderness, which conveyed Senora Juarez and party to Vera Cruz, reports the Liberals extremely independent, defiant and saucy.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

The President has under consideration the propriety of calling the five District Commanders to this city, that they may confer with each other and the Executive relative to the execution of the reconstruction acts, and determine as near as may be possible upon uniform rules of action and practice.

The Judiciary Committee closed the impeachment investigation this morning.

Secretary Seward left for Auburn to-day.

Governor Flanders, of Louisiana, has arrived here.

In the Surratt trial the prosecution have been putting in rebutting evidence all day.

PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.

The United States steamer Augusta and monitor Miantonomah, arrived here last night, bound for Europe via Nassau.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 22.

The Indianola Bulletin of the 18th reports yellow fever on the increase—the sick in almost every house in the town—and makes an appeal for assistance in money and medical stores.

The fever has also broken out in Lavaca, where the Bulletin reports much suffering, many families being destitute and without protectors, and calls for contributions for their relief. The sufferers petitioned the Mayor of Indianola, by whom they were turned over to the Howard Association.

A convention of planters is in session in this city endeavoring to devise means to rebuild the levees. Result undetermined.

Accounts from the crops continue unfavorable. The Shreveport Southwestern reports the worm in cotton in the Red river country, and says the prospects are gloomy.

Accounts from the entire State of Louisiana, parts of Mississippi, Alabama and North Eastern Texas, says there have been too much rain and that the cotton worm is appearing.

There was no rain here yesterday or to-day, the first time in six weeks it has failed to rain for two consecutive days. The weather is very sultry. Thermometer 90°.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 22—Midnight.

In the House of Lords to-night, a motion was made on the part of the Government for the second reading of the Reform bill. Earl Derby made a lengthy and powerful argument in favor of the bill, and was followed by Earl Gray and others in opposition. Further debate on the subject was then postponed.

General Fatrell, who was arrested in this city on the 15th instant for alleged complicity with Fenians, is undergoing an examination at Dublin.

BERLIN, July 23.

Count Bismark's official organ denies positively the recently reported stories of the probability of war.

PARIS, July 23.

In the Corps Legislatif yesterday the ordinary budget propositions were passed.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23.

By an Imperial ukase, just promulgated, all political and governmental distinctions between Poland and the Empire of Russia are now obliterated, and Poland is absorbed into Russia as one of the provinces of the Empire.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 23.

The Express says that the statement recently published that the annual excursion of the fighting members of the Roberts wing of Fenians would come off on the 15th of August, is entirely devoid of truth. No hostile movement will be attempted until after the meeting of the General Congress of the Brotherhood, which will be held at Cleveland early in September.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 23.

The base ball match between the National and Empire clubs, to-day, closed at the end of the sixth innings, to enable the Nationals to reach the train for Chicago, where they play a match with the Excelsior club to-morrow afternoon. The score stood: National, 53; Empire, 26. The Nationals complimented the Empire club very highly, and pronounced two of its members the best players in the West.

PROCEEDINGS IN BANKRUPTCY.

IT is, perhaps, not generally known that the Supreme Court specifies that all cases in Bankruptcy, when finally closed, are to be bound in separate volumes for record. Hence,

Clinton Rice, Esq., Counselor at Law

And Secretary to the Justices of the United States Supreme Court in regulating forms, practice and procedure in Bankruptcy, for law and in equity, has just finished the rules of the Supreme Court in equity, a finely printed volume, some 60 pages, and will furnish the same by express, p. to b.). Also copy interleaved for the personal use of the Court and Bar price $7 50. Also all Supreme Court decisions, final decree; printed on fine paper, uniform size, standard numbers and cases, bound with notes of important points of practice therein. All of which are received direct from Washington, and for sale in quantities desired at No. 37 Main street, by

C. P. CHAMBERLIN & CO.

WILLIAM DOUGHERTY,

MARBLE WORKS & MARBLE MANTEL WAREROOMS,

No. 99 Front Street above Market,

HAS now on hand a large stock of Marble Mantels; also the finest assortment of Italian Marble grave stones to be found in the city, which he will sell at prices lower than have ever been offered.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

THE firm of WRIGHT, WILCOX & WRIGHT was dissolved March 4th, by P. Wright withdrawing. The business will be continued at the old stand, No. 7 Pyramid Block, by W. P. Wright and A. N. Wilcox, under the name and style of WRIGHT & WILCOX. All notes are authorized to settle the business of the old firm.

W. P. WRIGHT,
A. N. WILCOX,
R. S. WRIGHT.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY an order of sale, directed to me from the Circuit Court of Shelby county, state of Tennessee, at the May term, 1867, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Circuit Court room door, in the city of Memphis, on the first Monday in September, 1867, within the usual hours for sale, the following described real estate, to-wit: The property of Wesley Cole, on which he is living in said county and state, range 3, section 3, in the 10th Surveyor's district, on Wolf river beginning at Winfield Cole's southwest corner, thence south with C. Galloway and Tyrell's north boundary line to the corner of a 12 acre tract, formerly owned and sold by E. W. Gallaway, thence east with said line to Winfield Cole's south boundary line, thence west to the beginning, containing sixty-three and a half (63½) acres, more or less, levied on as the property of Thomas W. Moore for Wesley Cole, judgment in favor of the Federal Union, and others, and sale made and returned to me by Wm. Mansfield, constable of the 10th district of said county.

Also, one other tract, range 3, section 3, in the 10th Surveyor's district, beginning at the northeast corner of the above described tract, thence south with the east boundary line of the same, 80 rods, thence east 80 rods, thence north 80 rods, thence west 80 rods to the beginning, containing forty (40) acres, more or less, levied on as the property of Wesley Cole, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Wm. Mansfield, constable

TO THE COUNTRY PRESS.—The proprietors of the AVALANCHE are prepared to furnish a fine quality of printing ink, black and colored, at Northern prices, for CASH. In ordering, let the kind of press used be stated. tf

The damaged stock of clothing, boots and shoes ladies' and gents furnishing goods, at Mr. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street, must be closed out in the next ten days.

A FIRST CLASS SEMINARY.—Those parents who have daughters to whom they wish to give a first class education, will find an institution worthy of patronage in the Rev. W. E. Ward's seminary for young ladies at Nashville, Tennessee. The course of study is thorough, the training careful, the place healthful, the moral influence good, and the teachers alike skilful and devoted. We commend this school to parents.

Don't forget the old reliable Schwob Restaurant, No. 18 Adams street, where can be had the best the market can afford. The kitchen and dining room is under the management of the well known caterer, Sam Harmon. Also, a few furnished rooms for rent, with or without board, at a reasonable rate. tf

RARE WATERS.—We have taken occasion more than once to call attention to the ice cold soda and delicious syrups vended by W. R. Chandler & Co. Everybody knows where "Chandler's" is, but they don't all know that the delicious fruit syrups are to be obtained as pure and cool as sparkle from their respective springs, viz: Kissingen, Congress, Vichy, Seltzer, Pyrmont, and Red, not least, Blue Lick. Another weather nothing is more refreshing than a glass of water from Chandler's fount, and it could not be more conveniently or gracefully dispensed. If visitors from Pope John Paul Jones, the presiding genius of the fountain.

Gentlemen, look at those cheap white shirts, undershirts and drawers, socks, etc., at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, all of which must be closed out within the next ten days.

FESTIVITIES AT HORN LAKE.—A barbecue and bran dance will be given at the Horn Lake depot on Thursday, the 25th instant. Special tickets will be had at No. 5 Jefferson street, and at the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad depot. Trains will leave at half-past ten a.m. The arrangements are made, and the character of the managers, insure a day of enjoyment to all who desire to partake of an old fashioned barbecue, and that most enjoyable of all country recreations, a downright old time dance and social gathering. Those who are sure that Sir Roger de Coverly would have keenly relished if he had ever dreamed of such a thing, the nearest approach to which was tripping a merry roundelay on the grassy sward under the greenwood tree.

Hard cases of rheumatism can be cured by using the great Hesperian Liniment. For all external applications its effects are truly wonderful. Price only twenty-five cents. For Sale by Ward & LeGuen, and Simon & Rockitt.

The last chance for cheap damaged goods at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street. They must be closed out within the next ten days.

Receipts of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for Wednesday, July 24.

Day & Pressdee, 1 bale cotton; Crowder, Hartsook & Co, 4 tres and 1 box tobacco; Edmonds, Pettigrew & Co, 40 pkgs tobacco; G V Margerum, 4 cars stone; Cubbins & Gunn, 1 car lumber; Thos Brogan & Co, 1 car lumber; Johnson & Co, 1 car timber; Clarke, Eby & Co, 10 bbls sugar; Taylor, Gay & Rutland, 1 bbl meal; Charles E Thieme, 4 empty kegs; A J White & Co, 1 feed cutter.

M. Kraus & Co.'s (No. 213 Main street) damaged stock of dry goods must be sold within the next ten days.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—William L. Roshelle to Thomas Nagle, title bond, $1,000, lots Nos. 29 and 30, in block No. 16, each fronting 24 feet on Third street, and running back 115½ feet, situate in Fort Pickering or Chickasaw City.

John Dorgan to Ellen McDonough, deed, $700, lot No. 40, on the Hernando road, near the intersection of the Fort Pickering railroad, 143½ feet north line of said railroad, by 315½ feet, being the homestead of E. F. Stewart's estate.

Rosa P. Smith to John Parker et al, trust deed to secure $1,000, lot southside of Shelby alley, 40 feet by 160, near the lot decreed by Chancery court to Lucien Mead.

John Parker to Rosa P. Smith, deed, $4,000, same property as above.

MEETING OF THE CONSERVATIVES OF THE FIRST WARD.—A meeting of the Conservatives of the First Ward was held last evening at Engine House No. 6. The meeting was conducted in the greatest harmony. The enthusiasm manifested on the occasion betokens a growing achievement by the Conservatives of the First Ward on Thursday the 1st prox. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to attend the grand rally of the Conservatives at the county court room: Thomas Winters, Robert Goode, Conn Laden, John C. Powers, R. D. Bruen, Rob't Kane, John W. Taylor, Pat. McMahon, J. T. Cartwright, E. W. Wright, John O'Mahoney, Peter Lawler.

WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF A REVOLUTION.—No more premature decay of the teeth. Sozodont renders them indestructible. Nay, more, it makes enamel as white as Parian marble, and the breath as odoriferous as "the sweet South breathing o'er banks of violets." Neither the teeth nor the gums can become diseased, if it is used daily. eod

Ladies, look at those cheap domestics and jeanettes at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street. They must be closed out within the next ten days.

RAFFLE AT HARRY WEATHERBEE'S.—The raffle for the splendid seven octave rosewood Piano, and the English shot gun, will take place at Weatherbee's Saloon on Saturday evening, July 27th, at eight o'clock p.m. Ticket holders are requested to be on hand punctually. 3t

THE GRAVEST MALADIES OF YOUTH AND EARLY MANHOOD.—Howard Association Essays, on the physiology of the passions, and the errors, abuses and diseases peculiar to the first age of man, with reports on new and wonderful methods of treatment employed in this Institution. Sent in sealed letter envelope, free of charge. Address Dr. J. Skinn Houghton, Howard Association, Philadelphia, Pa. 3m

THE COLUMBIA ATHENÆUM.—The fall session of the Athenæum, a very popular institution of learning at Columbia, Tennessee, will open on the first Monday in September. There is no more beautiful and healthy site in Tennessee than Columbia, and parents and others who have visited, or been familiar with the course of study and mode of tuition in the Athenæum, commend it as one of the best schools in the United States.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The case of Jo. White, indicted for murder, was concluded last evening by the jury returning a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, and fixing the term of imprisonment at twenty years. Messrs. Mulligan and Washington conducted the defence, General Wallace prosecuted the case of the State.

Owing to the illness of the foreman of the investigation in the case of Fred Russer was not resumed, but was continued over to this evening.

The cases for to-day will be taken from the regular calendar as published for the week.

THE IRVING BLOCK SKELETON.—One of our contemporaries directed public attention, yesterday, to a wonderful discovery of the remains of some unfortunate human being discovered in one of the upper rooms of the old Irving block. Some person had gone into an unfrequented room, and there found the sad relics of mortality, and the writer of the article excited public interest by ominous suggestions that perhaps a murder or a suicide, heretofore all unknown, had been perpetrated by somebody. A good many persons went about the Irving block yesterday, to gaze at it and speculate on the mysterious occurrence, but they would have been horrified if they had been informed of all the facts in relation to these mysterious relics. A careful examination of the remains demonstrated beyond contradiction, that the unfortunate deceased, after being murdered, or making away with himself, actually strung all his bones together, on wires, for so they are now, and it cannot be supposed that any murderer would have gone to that trouble with the bones of his victim.

Rally Conservatives!!

The Committee of the Fifth Ward earnestly request the Conservatives of the Ward—white and colored—to attend the meeting to be held at the Criminal Court room, on Second street, on Wednesday night, the 24th instant. Messrs. Coleman, Cameron, Bullock and others will address the meeting. W. T. Thurmond, T. W. O'Donnell and P. F. Bilbow, special Committee, request Committees of other Wards to be present for the purpose of a conference as to the best interests and advancement of the Conservative cause.

JOHN P. TOMEY, President.
DANIEL HOWARD, Secretary.

ITEMIZAD.

The Municipal Court has adjourned to meet Monday.

From October 18, 1866 to July 1, 1867, the Fire Department of this city cost $67,965 50.

Several little mackerels have been arrested on the charge of setting fire to buildings.

A new street railroad, from Beale street to Elmwood Cemetery, is about being put down.

A very fine addition to the north end of the Overton Hotel is now almost completed.

Somebody is taking a census of the colored population of the city.

P. R. T. Vandenburg, Esq., the popular insurance agent, has gone North on a visit.

Policeman Wombold, who recently killed John Hughes, died on last Monday night. He was under bonds to answer the charge of murder.

T. B. Edgington, Esq., of the law firm of Edgington & Halsey, has gone to Iowa to ruralize during the heats of summer.

Henry Fisher, a black, is under arrest for stealing one hundred dollars worth of clothing from the boarding-house of Mr. Davis.

It is reported that Crowley's Ridge, in Arkansas, is infested with a gang of robbers, and are committing numerous depredations. One old gentleman was robbed of $6,000.

The fire on Sunday night, on Gayoso street, was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as the plastering had been broken through and coal oil poured between the walls, after which it was set on fire.

C. S. Cameron, Esq., has accepted invitations to speak at Columbus on next Tuesday, at Franklin on Wednesday, and at Nashville on Wednesday night. His forcible oratory and pungent logic will make Radicalism wince wherever he touches it.

Alderman Wickersham has been tendered, and has accepted, the position of Cashier of the Citizens' Union Bank in place of Mr. Thomas Barrett, resigned. Mr. Wickersham's business capacity qualifies him well for this position.

A woman laboring under that disease of the alimentary canal, which has been fatal to so many persons who were indiscreet, took, by direction of her physician, a teaspoonful of an opiate preparation every half hour, for three days and two nights. Of course she died. Was this malpractice?

The Board of Health was organized yesterday, Dr. Irwin being chosen President, and Dr. Rogers, Secretary and health officer of the city. The Board of Health consists of Doctors Frazer, Grant, Sims, Rhodes, Jelowich and Irwin, and certainly fairly represents the medical profession of the city.

W. J. Mansford, Esq., who has been for a year past the local editor of the Evening Ledger, has resigned his position, and anticipates remaining during the summer months. Mr. Mansford is a clever, competent gentleman, a finent writer, and a truthful reporter. He has the good wishes of the whole editorial fraternity, and of all his acquaintances.

An election for sundry city officials, Mayor and eight Aldermen, is to come off about the first of January, and already there is a casting about for Radical candidates. Thus far the two gentlemen most prominently named for the Mayoralty are Dr. A. T. Shaw and Alderman E. W. Wickersham.

Mr. Ware did not desire to be put in nomination for the Legislature at the recent Radical convention. He has been there and having been told that Dailey had pitched into him, don't seem to have got Dailey's remarks altogether correctly, for he declares that he "never did sell Dailey's grandmother, or any thing about whom any doubt could be entertained as to color."

The cost of maintaining the Exchange Hospital is altogether about one dollar and fifty-four cents a day for each patient. The cost of maintaining the State Hospital is altogether about one dollar and seven cents a day for each patient. This average is based on the supposition that no outstanding bills were made or supplies on hand at either institution January 1.

Among the victims to the prevailing sickness was Frederick W. Neumann, Esq., who died suddenly after a sickness of a few hours. Mr. Neumann was a native of Prussia, but was an old resident of Memphis, and was well known to all the citizens as an energetic, upright, honest business man. His remains were conducted to Elmwood, on Sunday evening, by the Druids, and also the German Benevolent Society.

The Rev. C. A. Davis, D. D., has gone North to some watering place in Kentucky, and will be absent about a month. His family went with him. During the eight years that Mr. Davis has been the beloved pastor of a church in this city, he has spent six months in Memphis. Now his health absolutely demands relaxation from pastoral duties, and his congregation freely consent to this Northern tour.

An attempt was again made, last Monday night, to burn down the block at the corner of Main and Gayoso streets, which, within a fortnight, had been three times previously fired. A kitchen in the rear of No. 350 Main street was entered, some articles stolen from the kitchen, the place set on fire, and the whole building burned down. Notwithstanding all these attempts to do malicious michief.

The Old Folks' celebration at Buntyn's Station, on Thursday (to-morrow), will be a very pleasant affair. The gentlemen acting as the committee of arrangements, and the marshals, will do all that is needed to get up in the best style this picnic, and we presume that our most respectable citizens will be well represented. The affair will be eminently social, as befits a celebration in honor of the olden time. Tickets may be procured of the Secretary, John B. Moseley, at No. 19 Union street.

An inquest was held on Monday upon the body of a colored man found floating in the water near the dry dock at Fort Pickering. His appearance indicated that he had been a deck hand. The skull had been fractured, and nose broken by a blow supposed to have been given before the body was thrown into the water. That mutilated corpse told of some desperate tragedy. Who murdered that poor black and then threw his body into the water? Will the police take the trouble to make a single inquiry in such a case, when there are neither rewards to be secured nor tool chests to be stolen?

Roberts, who is now figuring at Washington in the prosecution of Mr. Tomeny, is one of two brothers, who were formerly cotton brokers in this city, and subsequently United States detectives. One of them made a proposition to C. C. Smith, Esq., to share in taxing heavily the hiring of blacks to the planters by the Freedmen's Bureau; but when the proposition was rejected, came out in the Bulletin with a card denouncing Mr. Smith and others, but a day or two afterward published what he thought best "a humble apology for his unjust attack." One of the brothers wrote from Mobile that he had a good thing on Tomeny, and meant to get money out of him. He wanted Dr. Shaw to draw vouchers on Tomeny, and pretended they could make thirty thousand dollars between them out of Tomeny.

The Northwestern railroad is now almost completed, and in a few days cars will be running regularly from Duluth through to Nashville. Hereafter passengers from Memphis to Nashville have either had to go by way of Memphis and Charleston railroad to Decatur, and by Decatur and Nashville railroad to the State capital, or by way of Memphis and Ohio railroad and Clarksville railroad to the Kentucky State line, and thence southward to Nashville by the Edgefield and Kentucky railroad. By now going from Memphis by the Memphis and Ohio railroad to McKenzie, and from thence to Nashville over this new Northwestern railroad, a great saving of time and distance will be effected.

THE GAYEST OLD TIME OF THE SEASON.

The Old Folk's Picnic at Buntyn's Station on Thursday.

The Old Folks will have a great time to-morrow at Buntyn's Station, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad. As will be seen by the advertisement, the cars will run three times each way during the day, thus enabling everyone to spend a couple of hours delightfully, and then return to the city. The arrangements for carrying the day are ample. There will be a fine band of music in attendance, and many folks present will have an all the dancing and music. For those who like other diversions there will be a barbecue, shady walks, an address by Colonel McMahon, and numerous other attractions.

The affair will be a most social and happy one, and we advise all who can to attend.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Stands adjourned until next Monday, which day will be the final motion day for the present term.

Handsome Presentation.

Last evening a number of guests were invited to a soiree, by Mr. James Speed, among whom were Colonel Jones, Colonel Cameron, Captain Peterson, Mr. Geoghegan, Mr. Turner, Mr. Haight, Beak, of the Appeal, and Philp of the Bulletin. The company, although not large, was genial, and were soon made to feel entirely "at home." Taking advantage of the occasion, a splendid gold watch and chain was presented to Mr. Speed through Mr. Geoghegan, as a testimonial of the high estimation in which he is held by his friends, to whom he had endeared himself by his bland manners, his sterling worth, and strict integrity. He responded in neat and expressive remarks, manifesting his high appreciation of the compliment, and assuring his friends that their magnificent present should be held dear through every minute of the days, months, and years of which its hands should keep record, and his manhood. The company was brief, but interesting; and a neatly spread table with sparkling glasses and rosy wine in profusion, was brought into notice. Several appropriate sentiments were proposed, and a few remarks elicited, when Colonel Coleman was called out and made an exceedingly chaste and eloquent speech, in which he referred to his long acquaintance with the recipient of the handsome testimonial of which he proved. He referred to his parentage, and the proud name among men his honored father bore. There could not be an inferior shoot from so godly a tree. He made an eloquent and touching apostrophe to liberty, and proposed the health of James Speed, which was responded to in a general libation. We left part of the company still enjoying the generous provisions of the courteous host, and wended our way to the office to pen this imperfect sketch of a most agreeable entertainment.

Ladies, don't fail to look at M. Kraus & Co.'s (213 Main street) damaged stock of dry goods. They must be closed out within the next ten days.

ADDRESS

Of the Central Committee of the Conservative and Republican Parties to the Citizens of Memphis.

The undersigned, members of the Central Committees of the Republican and Conservative parties, earnestly desirous to secure harmony, peace and good order in the coming election, and to allay any apprehension that may exist in the public mind of disorder on that occasion, have, in mutual conference, agreed upon the following arrangements for conducting the election, which they submit to their fellow citizens in the hope that they will be regarded as just and proper, and that they may be the means of accomplishing the desired end:

1. The Commissioner of Registration has, in accordance with our suggestions, appointed judges and clerks of elections fairly divided between the two political parties, and selected from among the most judicious citizens in the community. The Sheriff has also appointed his officers for holding the elections, in compliance with our suggestions, and has fully approved the appointments of judges and clerks as made by the Commissioner of Registration.

2. The polling places shall be in temporary buildings to be erected in each ward for the purpose, with proper arrangements to prevent persons being crowded while engaged in voting.

4. White voters are requested to deposit their ballots at the voting places in the First, Third, Sixth and Seventh wards, and colored voters in the Second, Fourth, Fifth and Eighth wards.

4. Each party shall select challengers for each polling place two sober and discreet men, and in all cases of challenge the party challenging shall have their questions put either by the challengers of the opposite party or by the judges of election.

5. To prevent double voting, it is agreed that every certificate shall be stamped with the date of the election on the upper left hand corner, by one of the officers of election, when the ballot of the voter is deposited.

The Mayor has informed us that he will order all drinking saloons to be closed on the election day throughout the city. The Superintendent of Police has, in addition to his regular force, called for a special police force of three hundred men, which he wishes to have composed of sober, discreet and reliable men, as nearly as may be equally divided between the two parties, who shall take no active part as partizans in the election.

The undersigned are fully aware that their arrangements as to separate voting places for white and colored voters has no force except as a recommendation, voters being entitled to any precinct he may choose, but they believe that the wisdom of the plan, under the circumstances now existing, will commend it to every intelligent man, and they trust it may be generally adopted.

It is, perhaps, needless for us to call the attention of our fellow citizens to the great stake which every resident of Memphis has in the maintenance of order in this election. If it is demonstrated to our fellow countrymen that in this period of intense political excitement, and under the peculiar circumstances which now exist, an orderly and peaceful election can be held, under arrangements agreed upon and faithfully carried out by the contending parties, it will give a degree of confidence in the security here afforded to persons and property, which will be of great pecuniary benefit to the city. The consequences that would follow a tumult and riot are appalling to contemplate. We are confident that none but the most vicious and depraved—such as the City Police and Police Surveillance—feel any desire for aught but peace. That class we may safely leave to be dealt with by the strong arm of authority.

We earnestly request of our fellow citizens that they shall, on the day of election, avoid intemperate political discussion, and after depositing their ballots, that those not selected as vote distributors or peace officers, shall quietly retire from the vicinity of the polling places. We feel the utmost confidence that a compliance on the part of our citizens with the arrangements and recommendations herein suggested will result in the maintenance of peace and good order.

HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE.

The County Commissioners at Work.

Squandering the People's Money.

On Friday last, when the County Commissioners adjourned their session for dinner, in the absence of Messrs. White and Hack, the magnificent trio, Barbour Lewis, W. F. Louis and Merriman, in the fullness of their plenary power, concluded it was a meet and proper time to exercise "a little brief authority." They accordingly proceeded to raise the salary of Dr. Laski, as county physician, three fold, from seventy-five dollars to one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month. But this was not enough for these careful guardians of the people's money and conservators of the law. They appointed a superintendent for the Court House, at a salary of two hundred dollars per month—a piece of effrontry which even they were not considered sufficiently impudent to undertake, as it is well known that the duty devolves upon the Sheriff to appoint such officer, if he shall consider it needed by the public interest. Dr. White and Mr. Hack, when they returned from dinner, protested against what had been done, and had their names recorded in opposition. Among such creatures as Barbour Lewis, who has been notorious as a habitual frequenter of a brothel on Front street, undertakes to play such tricks, it is time he should be exposed. He is a pretty thing to hold an important office in the county of Shelby. No wonder a portion of the Radicals are growing tired of his insolence, and would very gladly see a substitute, with a little more character and less notoriety.

THE LATEST RADICAL NOMINEE.

Light Wanted in Relation to his Antecedents.

There was at one time in the service of the Southern Confederacy a steamboat that was called the "Thirty-fifth Parallel." It did a good deal of service, and took possession, under alleged rules of war, of considerable property that was supposed to be needed for Confederate military operations. When it did so it gave receipts for such property. Now some of these receipts were yesterday exhibited about the streets, and, curiously enough, they bore the signature of "Thomas A. Hamilton, Captain of the Thirty-fifth Parallel." Could this be the gentleman who has been nominated by the Radical convention, whose members applauded so loudly the speaker who declared he "never would vote for or for one who had been a rebel, and then turned round and nominated Mr. Hamilton? If the Radical nominee was the same Thomas A. Hamilton who was captain of the Thirty-fifth Parallel, (the Confederate war vessel), and was sworn in as such, as he must have been to be captain, how can he take the oath required before he can be a candidate.

Was this the same T. A. Hamilton who was an officer in the Confederate Greys? Was it the same T. A. Hamilton who, before the war, owned, bought and sold slaves when it suited his convenience? If so, he is certainly a queer candidate for those fanatics who try to keep alive old prejudices, and swear they won't vote for any man who has been either a rebel or a slaveholder.

RELIABLE FRENCH MEDICINES.

Certain Cures for Diseases of the Stomach, Lungs and Other Organs.

Remedies that Doctors Should Prescribe.

The great French chemists, Grimault & Company, are preparing certain medicines that must become popular with members of the medical profession, wherever they are known. They are to just been introduced here by G. W. Jones & Co., at their great drug warehouse and store, No. 257 Main street, and should be tested by our physicians. They are not quack nostrums of which the composition is unknown. On the contrary, the constituents of every article are stated in its name, and perfect purity and uniform strength are the chief commendations of these standard preparations.

They have been subjected to the most rigid examination of the French Academy of Medicine, and are now used in all public hospitals in France and by the medical profession generally. They are not simple, but compound substances, based on the most recent medical discoveries. Among them are Dr. Leras' Liquid Phosphate of Lime, which is highly esteemed in cases of difficult digestion, general debility, and many other complaints occurring in warm and relaxing climates, Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horseradish has been used with great success in French hospitals in scrofula, diseases of the chest, and all affections for which cod liver oil has been heretofore taken.

Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime is considered the greatest remedy yet discovered for diseases of the lungs.

Dr. Durin du Buissons' Digestive Lozenges is almost the only remedy now given by French physicians for gastritis, jaundice and diseases of the liver.

Grimault's Guarana instantly cures nervous headaches, diarrhea, dysentery and neuralgia.

The above, and the Ferro Manganic Powder for making a healthful effervescing drink, with other preparations by Grimault & Co., can be found at the drug store of G. W. Jones & Co., No. 257 Main street.

FATAL AFFRAY AT LAGRANGE.—On last Monday an affray occurred at LaGrange, that resulted in the death of a young man named Robert Thompson. It seems that the father of the young man who was killed is named John Thompson. He was an original secessionist, but subsequently became an extreme Radical, and left Memphis for New Orleans all fright, though rather light, yesterday, and the Nick Longworth took her departure Saturday evening with a full load for New Orleans.

Milwaukee dispatches of the 21st report a great freshet in the Mississippi. The water is as high as it was in 1858. The suspension bridge and St. Anthony falls are thronged with people. The Falls are steadfast. Casey laland 180m, nine miles above here, broke a two p.m., and 8,000,000 feet of logs went over the falls; in all 12,000,000 feet have gone over since yesterday morning. The great Coon Creek boom, containing 30,000,000 feet, is still safe.

Gleaner, J. S. McCune and Victor No. 2.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The weather continued warm yesterday, and business was confined to the packets only. Some houses admitted some improvement, but it was merely partial. Cotton was reported firm at prices named in our commercial report.

We thought our notice yesterday would stir up our confrere of the News Agency Company, for the paper was scarcely issued before we had tidings that Captain Dick had found his way back as far as St. Louis, and unless the reporters of that city required the enjoyment of his agreeable company, and levied upon him, he is not far from the Bluff City at this time. There was some talk of the company of which he is an active member having a procession of two, armed with a whole package of Chinese crackers, to give him a reception on his arrival; but, on reflection, and knowing his repugnance to ostentatious display, they concluded that a cold luncheon of cheese and crackers would be more acceptable. The Mackerel Brigade are respectfully solicited to meet this morning under the bluff, and join in the procession to receive our honored confrere. The Treasurer has secured a fine brass band for the occasion, as the ceremony is of great moment. Colored Mackerels are invited to participate. For further particulars, see small bills.

Looking across the street, the first object that attracts our attention is the establishment of Mr. Henry Nathan, importer and wholesale dealer in wines, liquors, cigars, etc., and steamboat bar stores, No. 23 Jefferson street. His stock will challenge comparison with the large cities of St. Louis, Louisville or Cincinnati. We commend Mr. Nathan's stock to the trade, as having been selected with great care, and fully sustaining the reputation the house, under his control, has enjoyed.

A handsome testimonial was presented last evening, by his many friends, to James Speed, Esq., the active and courteous General Passenger and Ticket Agent, steamboat and rail, of No. 5 Jefferson street. The present consisted of a splendid gold watch and chain. None can be more fully deserved than was the present, and never was such a compliment. It will be appreciated and worn by a most competent business man and thorough gentleman. The details of the presentation, which was a delightful affair, may be found in our local column.

A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.—Captain Henry W. Smith, President of the Memphis Packet Company, has issued an order to the captains of all boats of the line "to prevent any hackmen, hotel runners, baggage masters or like characters, from coming on board of their boats for the purpose of soliciting passengers or baggage."

MESSRS. Levy & Miller will have their wharfboat moored at the levee and ready for business by the 30th of this month. They also have secured a new office, which will be more eligible and convenient for their business than the one they have at present. They will move to No. 202 Front street in a few days, where they are having a nice office arranged, with a reading room attached, for the accommodation and benefit of their many steamboat friends.

Passengers arrived at New Orleans from Red river, Texas, report that on the trip up, when about ten miles from New Orleans, a water spout was seen to form upon the river, and for some time fears were entertained for the safety of the boat. The spectacle is said to have been grand in the extreme. It was witnessed with great admiration, not unmingled, however, with terror, as it might have caused the sinking of the steamer. A water spout on the river is of unusual occurrence.

The Mary Swan, Captain Hukill, will be found at the wharf this morning, to receive for Cairo and Evansville, and will leave to-day at five p.m.

The Louisville Courier says that Captain Irwin, of the Nick Longworth, contemplates, after this trip, placing his boat permanently in the trade between Memphis and Vicksburg.

The Jerusha, for White river, cleared last evening with a splendid trip.

The Mollie Hambleton and Lady left for St. Francis river and the City of Alton for St. Louis, last evening.

The Gleaner, Captain King, leaves to-day, at five p.m., for the Arkansas river and all way landings. She has No. 1 passenger accommodations, and is a good boat. Mr. John Penwick is her head center.

The Virginia and Rowena, of New Orleans, and the Emma No. 2, from New Orleans for Cincinnati, passed up yesterday at noon.

The F. W. Brooks was sold at St. Louis, on Saturday, by the Sheriff, for $1 20.

The Darling is due from Cincinnati.

The Rubicon, Captain Callan, will leave the City Wharf-boat to-day at five p.m. for Cairo and St. Louis.

Captain John Kyle has bought at Cincinnati the Anglo Saxon for $3000. Her machinery goes in a new Arkansas river packet.

Myron D. Hill, an old and well known Upper Mississippi raft pilot, was killed at Davenport, on last Tuesday night, by a raftsman named Gardner. In the attempt to arrest Gardner and a confederate named Merrifield, escaped from the calaboose, and one of the policemen shot and killed Gardner. Both of the men lived at LaCrosse, Wisconsin, and the bodies were taken up in the steamer Sucker State for interment. An old grudge was the cause of the fcas.

Wm. Patterson, mate of the steamer Great Republic, was fined $50 and costs on Saturday at St. Louis for placing in a horizontal position a fireman named Michael Murphy, on the 18th instant.

The locked up safety valve question has been revived at Evansville.

The Louisville Courier of Monday says:

The river was seemingly at a stand yesterday though falling very slowly, with three feet nine inches inches water in the canal by the mark. The river at Cincinnati continues to slowly recede, with not over four feet water in the channel over Rising Sun bar, which debars Cincinnati from being in the line of unrestricted river communication with St. Louis. Louisville, as the head of the falls, and we may be in another week cut off as well as Cincinnati. As for Pittsburg it has been been cut off since summer. Under gauge in New Orleans all night, though rather light, yesterday, and the Nick Longworth took her departure Saturday evening with a full load for New Orleans.

Milwaukee dispatches of the 21st report a great freshet in the Mississippi. The water is as high as it was in 1858. The suspension bridge and St. Anthony falls are thronged with people. European Politics Discussed with Small Swords.

From the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, 15th.]

A Prussian, named John Unverzagt, who, within the space of twelve months, has fought two duels growing out of disputes about European politics, the last with a Frenchman named DeBois, who received a wound which was rapid from which he was confined to his bed for six weeks, received a document the other day, which we translate from the German as follows:

NEW ORLEANS, July 9, 1867.

MR. UNVERZAGT—Dear Sir: As I have learned that you have already fought with two gentlemen of different nationalities and come out victorious, I hereby step forth as the representative of the third (the Spanish) and beg of you to try me also, as a revenge for my friend DeBois, your late antagonist.

Accompanying please find a blank headed conditions. Fill it up and return it by the bearer, Mr. Bruno, my second. In the hope that you will grant my request, I sign myself.

Respectfully,

SIG. EL BONIO,

Formerly Fencing Master in Spanish Army.

On the 12th instant Mr. Unverzagt returned an answer, accepting the challenge and choosing the foil as his weapon. The meeting was to take place at five o'clock yesterday morning, in Greenville, near the Carrollton railroad, and exactly at the hour appointed principals and seconds were on hand and the former were placed on guard. Notwithstanding the profession of the Spaniard, both parties seemed about equally matched, and felt each others foils and followed each others motions so accurately, that after fifteen minutes fencing neither party had received a scratch. The Spaniard grew excited. The Prussian, cool but cautious, and the latter dropping the left arm from its proper position, the Spaniard, quick as lightning, sent the point of his foil into it. But the wound was but a trifling one, and only made the Prussian more careful. The fight went on, and the Spaniard grew more and more excited, pressed hard on his antagonist, but failed to touch him.

The Prussian kept cool and on the defensive, till at last the Spaniard laid himself open to an attack, which the best of fencing masters find it difficult to avoid, and which, when successful, places the vanquished in a rather ridiculous position. By a turn of the wrist similar to all known as the Prussian caught the point of his adversary's foil on the "fort" of his own blade, and, striking toward the hilt of his opponent, sent the weapon of the latter spinning through the air, and left the Spaniard disarmed and at his mercy. So well was the blow aimed that the Spaniard's foil did not touch the ground till near twenty feet from its former possessor. The seconds unanimously declared Mr. Unverzagt victor, and Mr. Bonio's weapon was delivered to him as a trophy.

In the meantime the municipal authorities of New Orleans, after much deliberation, and carefully weighing the reasons pro and con, had arrived at the very sage conclusion that, while we on this continent in general, and in New Orleans particularly, are firmly of the opinion that the "Monroe doctrine" must and shall be enforced, a decent respect for the opinion of mankind makes it obligatory on all Uncle Sam's children, and especially the adopted ones, to refrain from all intervention in European politics. Having arrived at this very sage conclusion, it was resolved to send an army of observation to watch the movements of the Prussian and Spanish belligerents, and, if possible, prevent a collision. Accordingly nine policemen, under the command of an experienced officer, were sent on this dangerous expedition. We shall not attempt to give any detailed account of the hardships suffered by this force during its marches and countermarches; suffice it to say that this armed neutrality force arrived on the field where the battle had been lost and won by Prussia's intrepid son. Having observed that the cruel war was over, and that it was not likely that any more blood would be shed, the army of observation retired in good order, leaving the principals and seconds in this affair of honor to discuss its merits, which they proceeded to do, probably, over sundry bottles of wine.

Freedom with a Vengeance.

From the Murfreesboro Monitor.]

We learn from a citizen of Coffee county that some days ago, a colored man (who is a Conservative), applied to the register for a certificate. The individual told him if he he could get one for Brownlow, he could get one. The colored man, knowing that it was impossible to get his certificate by any other means, "fought the devil with fire," and said he was a Brownlow man. The register gave him his certificate. Some days subsequent, the register learned that the colored individual was going to vote the Conservative ticket, and accosting him, found that his "man and brother" was a staunch Etheridge man. The register used the most violent and abusive language towards him, and told him he had orders in his pocket to return such negroes to slavery; he would not be allowed to vote against Brownlow and retain his freedom. The colored man replied that he saw no benefit in being free, if he was not allowed to vote as he chose. The register drew his pistol and threatened to shoot, but the Conservative darkey stood up to the rack and succeeded in bluffing the Brownlowite, who sneaked off, amid the jeers and laughter of those who witnessed his effort to bully the Conservative.

Local finances remain about as last reported. Money continues scarce, with little or no animation in financial circles. Business of every character continues to move along sluggishly. The discount market continues to rule close, with the rates of interest firm and unchanged.

GOLD—In New York yesterday was quiet at 139¼@139¾. The market here was steady, with no local demand and light transactions. The premium rates ruled at 138@138¾. Silver continues to rule firm at 132@134.

EXCHANGE—Is quiet but in light supply. Bankers check at sight on the East at ⅝@¾c premium, St. Louis and Cincinnati at ⅜@¾c; on New Orleans at par.

CITY SCRIP—Quiet and dull, with little demand and light transactions. Brokers are offering 57@58c and selling at 60@61c.

COUNTY SCRIP—Continues dull with a large supply on the market and a small demand. Brokers are offering 60@61c and selling at 63@65c.

COUNTY SCRIP—Is dull at 78@80c buying, and selling at 90@95c.

TENNESSEE MONEY—Remains quiet and unchanged, with few transactions. Bank of Tennessee, old issue, 80c; bank of West Tennessee, 40c; bank of Chattanooga, 10c; bank of Middle Tennessee, 95c; City Bank, 60c; Merchant's Bank, 85c; Northern Bank, 95c; Ocoee Bank, 9c; Planters' Bank, 98c; Union Bank, 98c; Shelbyville Bank, 80c; Southern Bank, 80c; Traders' Bank, 95c.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 24, 1867.

Business continues dull, although in some houses there was a slight improvement noticeable yesterday.

There was seasonable weather, and not "incomparably" warm, as we were made to announce yesterday; yet the heat manifested that there were sufficient caloric in the atmosphere for all useful purposes. Quite a feeling of relief has been exhibited since favorable reports of the crops have begun to come in, and more we think than has been fully warranted. Our Southern planters were so long accustomed to depending solely upon the great staple, and had so totally neglected the cereals, they rather deceived themselves upon the extent of their crops, which will not allow them the margin they anticipated. Still it is a great improvement on former years, when large amounts of money went out of the country to swell the fortunes of Northern producers to provide supplies for the planters who relied on cotton alone. The corn crop is said to look well; but in most localities where there was too much corn and cotton planted, the former has been thrown out, that the latter may receive undivided attention. The crops of small grain in Central Illinois have been nearly harvested, and is said in both quantity and quality to exceed the yield of former years. A St. Louis exchange thinks that a material decrease in the price of breadstuffs may be looked for, but speaks of the vetetable and late grain crops suffering for lack of moisture. That which we think will exert the strongest influence in diminishing the exorbitant demands for grain and breadstuffs generally, will be that the former dependence upon the Northern granaries will be in a measure relieved, and this market was firm

Its reputation is established as a cure for SCROFULA and most of the Glandular and Cutaneous affections, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, CHILLS, THRUSH, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, DYSPEPSIA and PILES. In all cases of debility of the system and broken down states of the constitution, Loss of Appetite, Want of Nervous Energy, Depression, Languor, and Lassitude, it is Restorative are without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are specially indicated in the ailments peculiar to the female constitution.

The Springs are distant only eleven hours from Richmond and twelve hours from Washington by rail; in the midst of the grand mountain scenery of Virginia; in the same county with the famous "Natural Bridge," (from which it takes its name,) and not far from Lexington, the seat of the Virginia Military Institute; the home of Lee, and the tomb of Jackson.

For all particulars of routes, location and properties of the water, see Springs' pamphlet, sent free by mail.

The bottled water and the skins of the water (or "mush") can at all times be had fresh and genuine from Hageman & Co., New York; Coleman & Rogers, Baltimore; Purcell, Lee & Co., Richmond, and A. S. Mosher, Lynchburg, Va.

A superior BAND OF MUSIC for both lawn and ball-room is attached to and during the season.
